Numb. 8437.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 1. to Tuesday June 4. 1745.

Naples, May 18.

THE Veſſels which have been ſo long loaded and lain in this Port, with Artillery, Ammunition, &c. are at laſt ſuddenly ſailed, to the Number of 19 or 20, at different Times within this Week, and there are about ſeven or eight more remaining in this Mole, which it is expected will ſoon follow. Some ſay they are deſign'd for Orbitello, and the Garriſons on the Coaſt of Tuſcany.

Genoa, May 23, N. S. The Duke of Modena and M. de Gages, with Part of the Army, are at Nervi, a Village about five Miles from this City, and the Remainder at Chiaveri, Lavagna, and Rapallo. Two Palaces are preparing in San Pierre d'Arena for the Reception of thoſe Generals, where it is expected they will fix their Head Quarters. The Deſign of their ſudden March into this State begins to be diſcovered, warm Repreſentations having been made to this Republick to accede to the Alliance with France and Spain, and to join them with their Troops; but the Republick hitherto continues fixed in her Reſolution of keeping up to the Neutrality ſhe has profeſſed. The Spaniſh Agent has requeſted the Republick to lend them 12 Pieces of Cannon, and was anſwered, that they had barely enough to defend the City. The Army does not conſiſt of above 15000 fighting Men, badly cloathed, and in general diſcontented, on finding themſelves deceived in the Hopes they had been flatter'd with, of the Republick's declaring openly in their Favour. Their March into this State has coſt them upwards of 5000 Men, and they now find themſelves penned up without Cannon, and unable to undertake any Operation. His Sardinian Majeſty and Prince Lobcowitz have prohibited the bringing into this State any Sort of Cattle or Proviſions, under Pain of Death, by which Means the City is reduced to no ſmall Inconveniences for Meat. Yeſterday arrived a ſmall Catalan Veſſel with ſix Pieces of Field Cannon that had been brought from Nice to Oneille; they will be brought forward if it be found poſſible, with the Train prepared at Barcelona, which is already arrived at Nice and Monaco; the Cannon are to be put into ſmall Boats, to coaſt along the Shore; and the ſame Method will be uſed to get what has been prepared at Naples, hoping by this Means to get a Quantity ſufficient to enable them to take the Field. The Army under Don Philip is drawing together at Albenga and la Pietra; and it is expected he will ſet out from Nice the latter End of this Month to take the Command of it. M. Maillebois is arrived at Nice with 19 Battalions of Infantry and three Regiments of Cavalry; but all Advices agree, it is only to occupy the Poſts that may be quitted by the Spaniards, and to keep open the Communication. Some Advices from Ceva ſay, that 21 Battalions of his Sardinian Majeſty's Troops are marching towards that Place, and it is expected they will attack the Spaniards at Oneille or Albenga.

Stockholm, May 17, O. S. The Prince and Princeſs Royal continue at Droningholm, and his Swediſh Majeſty and moſt of the Senators are preparing to go and ſpend the Whitſun-holydays in the Country.

Copenhagen, May 29, N. S. The Review of this Garriſon began the 24th with the Regiment of Grenadiers, Colonel Kaltenborn; and the Regiment of Fuhnen, Colonel Viereg. On the 25th appeared the Regiment of Foot Guards, Colonel Caſtegna; and the Regiment of Laaland, Major General Dornbroich. The Whole concluded the 26th with the Regiment of Zealand, Prince Bevern; the Regiment of Holſtein, Count Hohenloe; and four Companies of Artillery. All theſe performed their uſual Exerciſe, with Firing, upon the Place of Amalienburg, and then paſſed in Review before the King and Queen, who ſeemed very well pleaſed with their Appearance and Addreſs. The Prince Royal aſſiſted only the firſt Day. This Affair being over, their Daniſh Majeſties, together with the Hereditary Princeſs, returned Yeſterday after Dinner to Fridericksburg; but before they went they made a Viſit to the Princeſs Royal, (who arrived here in the Forenoon) at her new Reſidence called the Palace.

Copenhagen,

(Price Four-Pence.)

Copenhagen, June 5. The King and Queen of Denmark, with the two Daniſh Princeſſes, return'd hither on Wedneſday the 2d Inſtant, propoſing to remain in Town till the Princeſs Royal is brought to Bed, which is now look'd for every Day.

Journal of the Saxon Auxiliary Army.

THE 22d of May the Duke of Saxe Weiſſenfels ſet out from Dreſden towards the Evening to join the Army in Bohemia. His Serene Highneſs lay at Zehiſt, and continued his Journey

The 23d to Leimeritz. His Highneſs has received Advice from the Chevalier de Saxe, that General Count Nadaſti, with a Detachment of 4000 Huſſars, Pandours and Croates, had, upon the 22d, attacked a Body of Pruſſians near Hennerſdorf, in the Neighbourhood of Landſhut, but that the Pruſſians, having received a Reinforcement, with Artillery, the Superiority of their Forces had obliged them to retire to Schimberg, after a Skirmiſh of ſeveral Hours, in which they reckon the Loſs to be equal on both Sides.

The 24th the Duke paſſed the Night at Jettenitz,

The 25th at Koenighof, and his Serene Highneſs arrived

The 26th in the Morning at Trautenau, near which Place the whole Saxon Army is encamped. The Chevalier de Saxe, who had been at the Head Quarters of Prince Charles at Jonſdorff, a Village ſituated at a little Diſtance from the Frontiers of Sileſia, ſent Advice to the Duke, that the Queen's Army would ſtay the next Day in their Camp, and then enter into Sileſia, the Paſſages and Avenues of which were reconnoitring.

The 27th our Troops were ordered to halt about Trautenau. Prince Charles dined that Day at the Head Quarters, and the two Chiefs concerted at that Meeting the Motions which would be proper to be made. In Conſequence whereof, the Queen's Army decamped

The 28th from Jonſdorff, and advanced as far as Schimberg in Sileſia.

All our Infantry, with the Chevalier de Saxe at their Head, quitted the Camp of Trautenau, and poſted themſelves near Koenigſhayn, on the Frontiers of Sileſia.

At the ſame Time Major General Schligting was commanded to cover the March of the Auxiliary Troops with the Regiment of Rutowski Light-Horſe and five Pulcks of Tartars, and to obſerve the Motions of the Pruſſians.

The ſame Evening Orders were given for our Cavalry to keep in Readineſs to follow the Army the next Morning towards Landſhut, which Place the Pruſſians have abandoned.

Landſhut, May 30.

The Saxon Auxiliary Army having joined the Auſtrians Yeſterday near this Place, entred Sileſia the ſame Day according to the Plan concerted.

The Saxon Train of Artillery follows Tomorrow, and ſome Auſtrian Battalions and Squadrons are left in the County of Glatz, as well to cover the Magazines and Baggage, which are to follow the Army, as to obſerve the Motions the Enemy may make in our Rear.

In order to know the juſt Poſition of the Pruſſian Army, General Nadaſti, with his Corps, is again detached, and we expect his Report, in order to form the March of the combined Army. We have received the agreeable News that M. Buccow, Aid de Camp to the Duke of Lorrain, with his Detachment of Pandours and ſome free Companies, had ſurpriſed the Fortreſs of Koſel: The taking of this Place is of the more Importance, as we gain thereby a Paſſage over the Oder.

The Combined Army has paſſed the River Bober, which falls into the Oder at Croſſen, and ſeparates the Territories of Saxony and Sileſia.

Dreſden, May 26, N. S. Some Days ago arrived here from Berlin M. Cagnoni, in order to ſucceed M. Beeſe, as his Pruſſian Majeſty's Miniſter at this Court. On Friday laſt their Poliſh Majeſties, and their Royal Highneſſes the Electoral Prince and Prince Xaver, returned from the Fair of Leipſig to this Reſidence. The next Day Count Perron arrived here from Turin, who is to ſucceed Baron Blonay in the Character of his Sardinian Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, and he has already had his Audiences, his Predeceſſor having had his of Leave. The Elector of Bavaria has ſent hither M. Bonichow, his Aid de Camp and Chambellan, to communicate in Form to the King of Poland the Preliminaries ſigned at Fueſſen the 22d paſt.

Dreſden, June 5, N. S. By Letters from Landſhut of the 1ſt Inſtant, the Combined Army was ſtill there, but would in a few Days March up to the Pruſſians, who were encamped near Schweidnitz. The Allies had then taken Freyburg, a Town ſituated in the Plain, not a German Mile from the Enemy; and there are other Letters which give an Account, that his Pruſſian Majeſty has abandon'd Schweidnitz. If this be true, it will give the Allies a free Paſſage into the open Country. The Combined Army is divided equally into two Columns. The King of Poland has aſſured her Hungarian Majeſty by Letter, that Orders ſhall be immediately diſpatched to Francfort, to have all the Quarters that formerly belong'd to the Bohemian Embaſſy, reſtor'd to her Miniſters.

Vienna, June 2, N. S. We hear from Sileſia, that Colonel Buccow, Lieutenant Colonel de Dolne, and Baron St. Ivary, having reſolved to attack the Town of Koſel, marched upon the 26th paſt from Schonbrun towards that Place, where the Troops under their Command arrived at Two o'Clock in the Morning. Twelve Pandours preſently after leap'd into the Ditches before the Town, which were 50 Feet broad, waded through them with the Water up to their Middle, and were immediately follow'd by 200 Pandours more, and ſome other Troops. The Centinel thereupon fired his Piece, and the Picquet and the Round, who were paſſing by, came up, but they could not prevent the Pandours from aſſiſting each other in their Attempts to mount the Ramparts, which were encompaſſed with Trees. Soon after they made themſelves Maſters of a Battery of five Pieces of Cannon, Cannon, one of which they turn'd, and discharged againſt the Town. The Enemy made a furious Fire from a neighbouring Battery, but a Lieutenant of Pandours having ſlipt into the inward Works with a few Men, and having attack'd the Enemy in Flank, and the reſt of the Troops alſo advancing Sword in Hand, they were obliged to retire into the Town. In the mean while Colonel de Dolne having cauſed a Party of his Men to get upon the Redoubt without, they cut down the Gates with Hatchets, and forced their Way into the Town, whereupon the Garriſon was obliged to ſurrender Priſoners at Diſcretion. This Action, from Beginning to End, laſted only an Hour and Half. We had ten Men killed, and but very few wounded; amongſt the laſt are Colonel St. Ivary, and the Captain-Lieutenant Frenk. But the Enemy had above 60 killed, amongſt whom were the Commandant, a Colonel, and a Captain, beſides ſeveral other Officers, and a great Number of private Men wounded. Amongſt the Priſoners are 19 Officers and 400 common Soldiers. We found 27 Pieces of Cannon upon the Ramparts, 10 of which were Braſs, and quite new; the greateſt Part of them are twelve Pounders. We alſo took above 100 Carriages laden with Ammunition, and a conſiderable Magazin. The whole Combined Army of Auſtrians and Saxons were to rendezvous on the 30th paſt at Landſhut. The Defiles to be paſſed, might, it is thought here, have been defended by 15000 Men againſt any Force whatever; and this Court, as well as Prince Charles, had been in great Pain for ſome Days for the Succeſs of the Enterprize, eſpecially as Count Nadaſti, with the moſt advanced Guard, had been obliged to retire with the Loſs of 200 Men a few Days before. But this was the firſt and laſt Effort made by the Pruſſians for preventing the Entry into Sileſia. From Landſhut there are Deſcents but not difficult, which lead either to Sweidnitz or Jauer. The Pruſſians were ſtill at Sweidnitz, but would, it was ſuppoſed, retire to Lignitz, to which laſt Place there is not above one March from Jauer.

Mentz, June 3. M. de la Farre, who commands the French Troops in the Abſence of the Prince de Conti, detached ſeven Battalions and ſome Cavalry towards Heidelberg upon the 31ſt of May, and upon the 1ſt Inſtant 13 Battalions and 12 Squadrons repaſſed the Rhine at Oppenheim. He remains with the reſt of his Corps near Floerſheim. The Grand Duke's Equipages left Vienna on the 22d, and we expect that his Royal Highneſs will ſoon put himſelf at the Head of the Queen's Army in the Empire. P. S. We have juſt received Advice from Wurtzburg, that Marſhal Bathiani was taken ill of the Gout there, which prevents his going forward; but in the mean time the Duke of Aremberg writes Word, that he is advancing with the Army. The French Troops which repaſſed the Rhine at Oppenheim on the 1ſt Inſtant, are filed off by the Valley of Leiningen. We have alſo an Account, that General Lowendahl, with a Corps of Troops, will immediately march to reinforce the French Army upon the Neckar.

Extract of a Letter from a General Officer in Marſhal Traun's Army, dated at Wolfingen in Franconia, June 3, N. S.

Four Days ago the French Army, that was then encamped near Wimpfen, having received a conſiderable Reinforcement, ſent two Regiments of Huſſars over the Neckar; and it was reported, the whole Army was going to follow. General Trips, who commands our Vanguard, being ordered to advance towards that Side, ſoon forced the ſaid Regiments over the River again, and took eight Officers and five and forty Huſſars of them Priſoners. The Enemy decamped the Day before Yeſterday from Wimpfen, and marched towards Heidelberg; and the ſame Day we took twenty large Boats at Gundelſheim, laden with Meal and Plank, that were going down the Neckar, having killed and taken Part of the Grenadiers that guarded them. We have certain Advices, that the Enemy are ſending their Baggage over the Rhine.

Hambourg, June 5, N. S. Our Merchants, who are juſt returned from the Fair of Leipſig, (which has proved a good one) repreſent ſtrongly the vigorous Meaſures which are taking throughout the Dominions of the Elector of Saxony, for proſecuting with Efficacy the enſuing Campaign. The Princeſs Royal of Denmark has appeared again in publick ſince her late Indiſpoſition; and the Phyſicians give all imaginable Hopes of her Royal Highneſs's ſafe and eaſy Deliverance. The Talk of a Progreſs of the Daniſh Court into Holſtein this Summer is now reſumed, and it is thought it will take Place in the Month of Auguſt. The Vacancy in this Magiſtracy, occaſioned by the Death of M. Jeniſck (who died lately at Ritzebuttle, of which Bailliage he had the Adminiſtration) is filled by the Nomination of M. Beckhoff. The Apprehenſions which have been occaſioned by the Death of ten or twelve Head of Cattle, juſt without one of the Gates of this City, ſtill ſubſiſt; all poſſible Precautions are uſed to prevent the ſpreading of this Diſtemper, which has manifeſted itſelf ſo near us, leſt it ſhould prove as miſchievous as that which has raged and ſtill rages in moſt Parts of Holſtein. The Magiſtrates flatter themſelves however that this is not the ſame Sickneſs; and the publick Executioner, who by their Order has diſſected one of the Carcaſſes, gives it in likewiſe as his Opinion.

Hague, June 8, N. S. By Letters from the Allied Army in the Netherlands we hear, that the Dutch Council of War had broke with Infamy Colonel Appius, and the Major Sickinga, of the Regiment of Heſſe Homburg, and ſome Subalterns in the Regiment of Ginkel, being convicted of Cowardice in the late Action of Fontenoy. The Regiments of Price and Mordaunt, and the Recruits from England for the Foot Guards, arrived at the Army in very good Order, on the 4th Inſtant, N. S. M. Alt, Miniſter of Heſſe Caſſel, ſet out for Hanover laſt Saturday. Marſhal Traun was on the 31ſt paſt, N. S. advanced to Thierwangen on the Borders of Franconia.

Berlin,

Berlin, June 5, N. S. It is reported here, that the Army of Prince Charles of Lorrain does not conſiſt of above 26000 Men, and is ſo ſurrounded by the Pruſſians, that it cannot even retire towards the Defilés by which it entred into Sileſia. What is certain is, that the two Armies are not above two or three Leagues Diſtance from each other. Three Companies of Grenadiers are ſhortly expected here from Sileſia in their Way to Magdebourg, and Bredow's Regiment of Foot, which is in Garriſon here, has received Orders to be in Readineſs to march thither likewiſe. In the mean while Count Haacke our Governor has obliged the Burghers to do Duty.

Hague, June 11, N. S. By Advices juſt received from Sileſia, we have an Account, that on the 4th Inſtant the Pruſſians had attacked the Combined Army near Schweidnitz, wherein the Pruſſians had gain'd a conſiderable Advantage.

Hague, June 11, N. S. M. Caravalho, and M. Hop, are both ſet out for Hanover. The Flemmiſh Letters of To-day have brought no News. The Citadel of Tournay continues to defend itſelf, and has made, we hear, ſome Sallies with good Succeſs. The French King has not forced the Dutch Governor to receive the Women and Wounded into the Citadel.

Hanover, May 27, O. S. The King arrived at Herrenhauſen on Wedneſday the 15th Inſtant, in perfect Health, God be praiſed, and on Saturday laſt arrived here the Right Honourable the Earl of Harrington, his Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State.

Whitehall, June 4.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Honourable John Earl of Stair, Field Marſhal of his Majeſty's Forces, to be Colonel of the Royal Regiment of North Britiſh Dragoons, in the room of Sir James Campbell, Knight of the Bath, deceaſed.

The Right Honourable the Earl of Peſtmure, to be ſecond Major to the ſaid Regiment.

The Right Honourable the Lord Cathcart; Charles Manners, Eſq; commonly called Lord Charles Manners; Andrew Robinſon, Eſq; and —— Loury, Eſq; to be Captains in the ſaid Regiment.

—— Jenkinſon, Eſq; to be Lieutenant Colonel to the Royal Regiment of Horſe Guards.

Sir James Chamberlayn, Bart. to be Major to the ſaid Regiment.

—— Webb, Eſq; to be Lieutenant Colonel to the Regiment of Horſe commanded by Sir John Ligonier, Knight of the Bath, Lieutenant General of his Majeſty's Forces.

—— Madan, Eſq; to be Major to the ſaid Regiment.

—— Johnſon, Eſq; to be Major to the Regiment of Dragoons commanded by Henry Hawley, Eſq; Lieutenant General of his Majeſty's Forces.

Edward Cornwallis, Eſq; to be Lieutenant Colonel to the Rigiment of Foot commanded by Thomas Bligh, Eſq; —— Merrac, Eſq; to be Major to the ſaid Regiment.

Edward Legard, Eſq; to be Lieutenant Colonel to the Regiment of Foot commanded by Henry Beauclerk, Eſq; commonly called Lord Henry Beauclerk.

—— Beard, Eſq; to be Major to the ſaid Regiment.

George Muir, Eſq; to be Lieutenant Colonel to the Regiment of Foot commanded by John Johnſon, Eſq; Brigadier General of his Majeſty's Forces.

—— Lacy, Eſq; to be Major to the ſaid Regiment.

—— Hickman, Eſq; to be Major to the Royal Regiment of Welch Fuzileers, commanded by John Huske, Eſq; Major General of his Majeſty's Forces.

—— Joſſelin, Eſq; to be Major to the Regiment of Foot commanded by Philip Bragg, Eſq; Major General of his Majeſty's Forces. And —— Carpenter, Eſq; to be Lieutenant Governor of the Iſland of Monſerrat in America.

Admiralty Office, June 4.

His Majeſty's Ships the Captain and Princeſs Louiſa being on a Cruize in the Channel, on the 30th paſt at Seven in the Morning ſaw two Sail to the S. W. of them, to which they immediately gave Chace. One of the Ships, which was an Engliſh Privateer, ſtood towards the Captain, and told them the other Ship they were in Chace of was a Privateer of St. Malo. The Captain and Princeſs Louiſa continued the Chace, and at Eight in the Evening came up with the Ship, which ſtruck without firing a Gun. She proves to be the Achilles Privateer of St. Malo, of 22 Guns and 148 Men, and is ſent into Plymouth.

The Society for the Propagation of the Goſpel in Foreign Parts give Notice, that they intend to lett by Leaſe their two Plantations at Conſets in Barbados. Inquiry may be made of, and Propoſals will be received by Dr. Bearcroft, at Charter-houſe, the Secretary of the Society.
